

Delivering Exceptional Services & Software Every Time

AWViewer
$950

AdvancedWare is Pleased to Present AWViewer - $950

With AWViewer you can view any type of document right from your Avanté, DataFlo or ManFact screen. How about viewing the CAD drawing right from the Bill of Material screen or viewing the Product Data Sheet right from the Sales Order screen. Using AWViewer you can accomplish this and more in one quick and easy step. Get your copy of AWViewer and start giving users access to the documents they need right from Avanté, DataFlo or ManFact.

Features of AWViewer:

1. AWViewer will allow viewing of multiple document types from the same screen. For example on the Sales Order screen the user could have the option to view the Web page that contains information on the product, the CAD drawing for the product, or a bitmap picture of the product.
2. Using AWViewer is very simple and straightforward. Setting up the views requires no programming and is accomplished in a few minutes.
3. AWViewer accesses the documents directly from your network. You don't have to put them in any special directory or copy them to the Avanté, DataFlo or ManFact server.
4. AWViewer works great whether your Avanté, DataFlo or ManFact server is running on Unix or NT.
5. AWViewer is release independent and therefore will run with any release of Avanté, DataFlo or ManFact.
